

Enhancing everyday living

LIST OF FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS AVAILABLE IN CANADA

Water heating represents the second most important residential energy expenditure. The various governments develop financial assistance programs in order for consumers to opt for water heaters that are more effective and less power hungry.

May 2014

Organizations	Models	Grants*
Fortis British Columbia	Energy Star residential water heaters	$200.00
	Condensing tankless water heaters	$500.00
	Non-condensing tankless water heaters	$400.00
	Commercial condensing water heaters	$1,000.00
Union Gas Ontario	Residential tankless water heaters	$200.00
Gaz Métro Quebec	Residential tankless water heaters	$250.00
	Condensing water heaters ≤ 160,000 BTU	$750.00
	Condensing water heaters &gt; 160,000 BTU	$1,000.00
Reno Climat Quebec	Residential propane tankless water heaters	$730.00
Gazifère Quebec	Condensing tankless water heaters used with a fan-coil unit	$500.00
	Commercial condensing water heaters	$1,200.00
Green Power Quebec	Oil-fired water heaters to any more energy efficient water heater	$200.00

Organizations	Models	Tax Credit*
EcoRenov Quebec	Residential tankless water heaters, condensing water heaters	up to $2,500.00

*Amounts are put as a reference and must be verified on the organization's web site. Giant is not responsible for grant modifications or cancellations made by the organizations.

